I am entering a listing, but the system keeps saying “Folio Number failed business rules validation”

This typically occurs when the folio number is not in the correct format; ask them what county the property is in? The correct format for the counties is located below:

- Miami Dade needs dashes in the folio number in a specific pattern 00-00-00-000-0000 if the folio has no dashes, they need to add them or if the dashes are in a different order they need to correct them
- Broward and Palm Beaches folio number have NO dashes so if they state they have dashes that is causing the error to have them remove dashes

They can also click on the Red Explanation Point and it will show them General Help

General Field Help:

- Broward County: Do not use dashes. Enter the numbers as follows xxxxxxxxxxxxxx
- Miami-Dade County: Use the dashes. Enter the numbers as follows xx-xx-xx-xxx-xxxx
- Palm Beach County: Do not use dashes. Enter the numbers as follows xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

Recent transfers or new Members. I am unable to edit my listing.

Check user class in RAMCO and verify that they have add/edit access and that the broker/office id matches in the MLS.

If the broker code in the listing does not match their RAMCO record, have the broker e-mail MLS@miamire.com in order for the listing to be transferred.

The square footage in the county records does not match what the seller is requesting.

If the value the seller is requesting is not reflecting in the county record.

The listing agent must submit an official document I.E. Floor Plan, Architect blue print or an appraisal to mls@miamire.com We cannot calculate any square footage – the document needs to have square footage field clearly totaled – only MLS Staff can make the changes.

I am unable to locate my Temporary or Withdrawn status listings in the MLS.

T and W status listing statuses can't be found in the add/edit page of matrix.

The agent will need to click My Matrix and click My Listings

Select in the drop down menu My Withdrawn or my Temporary off market listings in order to edit the listing.

My listing expired or was cancelled but I need it reactivated.

If the listing expired within the last 3 days the broker can reactivate the listing.

The agent can e-mail MLS@miamire.com with a copy of their listing agreement or listing extension in order for the listing to be reactivated.

If longer than 3 days a new listing will need to be entered.

YES – they will be two different MLS property types and MLS numbers and can be reference in remarks

Can you list a rental as furnished and unfurnished?

Yes. You will need to enter two separate listings and with two different list prices. List price can't be the same.

I am unable to access Form Simplicity or MLS Advantage.

This is not a MLS issue but rather a dues related issue with the Florida Realtors.

- If agent belongs to FLL/Palm Beach board, Click on “Find Agent” box above Agent ID box, search for agent by their name according to their license information. If searching by names and license ID showed invalid result, close listing using NMLS04 code (non-mls participant code).

I am unable to edit my listing

1. Check user class in RAMCO and verify that they have add/edit access, also confirm that the office they are with does not allow Add/Edit (if they are assigned the wrong access, please correct it). If they want add/edit they can have their broker email membership@miamire.com or mls@miamire.com to have them upgrade to Add/Edit access
2. If they do have Add/Edit access confirm that the broker code they are under matches the broker code that is displaying on the listing. If they do not match have them fill out a Status Change form filled out by the previous broker releasing the listing, the current broker accepting the listing and the clients agreeing as well. Once they have it signed by all parties, they can email the form to mls@miamire.com
