"Many of my sellers ask me about international marketing, and especially China. I expect San Francisco to have the same Chinese effect here as New York now has with European buyers. I have a couple of Mainland Chinese buyers who Juwai.com connected me with just this month and are just starting to look in New York. One is looking for a condo in the $1 million to $2 million range, and the other is looking for an apartment over $10 million. Without Juwai.com, I absolutely would not have connected with these buyers."

"My client's interest is in finding a buyer with the resources to take on this kind of investment. I wouldn't be doing my job if I weren't reaching out to potential Chinese buyers. Juwai.com has made it very easy for us. Their website reaches the largest Chinese audience, and they have made exhibiting at the Top Marques expo [in China] extremely easy for us."

"I had expectations because I was flying across the Pacific Ocean, and this [Juwai China Agent Summit] far exceeds my expectation. The things I learnt today are going to change the way I describe what's happening to my clients. [The speakers] gave me such a deep understanding of what's really happening politically. It's amazing, and I think for any realty agents that have any concept to what's really happening in Asia or wants to know, if you're not coming to this event, you're really missing the boat."

"Juwai has been great to work with – thank you. We've just put in a $1.73M offer in Arcadia for a client that you sent to us. We will also tear the house down by utilising our construction branch, and then build them a new house as well. We've also had several clients visit our offices personally. [We] helped a client with applications for her child to get into boarding schools...[and] are processing an EB-5 Visa for another client, who was having issues and had sought the service of four other lawyers before finally choosing to go with us. We appreciate every lead sent our way and will inform you of every closing generated by Juwai."
