

IMPORTANT CHANGES REGARDING YOUR REAL ESTATE LICENSE

Florida Requirement Details for Real Estate Continuing Education

Does your real estate license expire soon?

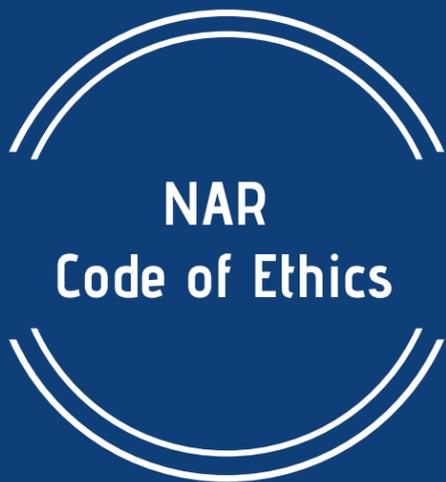

All Florida real estate licenses expire on either 3/31 or 9/30 every two years. After your initial post-licensing requirement, you must complete 14 hours of Continuing Education as it is required by the state.

FLORIDA RENEWAL

FOR LICENSES THAT EXPIRE ON OR AFTER
SEPTEMBER 30, 2018

14 CE HOURS CONSISTING OF

- 3 hours of law
- 3 hours of ethics (NEW)
- 8 specialty hours

If you completed the Code of Ethics course prior to March 31, 2018, it does NOT fulfill the Florida State (DBPR) requirement.

If you complete the NAR Code Ethics course on the NAR website it will NOT fulfill the Florida State (DBPR) requirements.

In addition, if you completed the 14-hour renewal course through us and your license expires on 09/30/18, you may still be required to complete the Ethics & Business Practices course. Your account in DBPR will show whether or not you have a “shortfall” for your Ethics requirements.

Please check the status of your license at myfloridalicense.com

We are offering the new Ethics and Professional Business Practices course at our locations. Please check the online Education calendar on our website, www.miamirealtors.com/education or call our MIAMI Professionals at 305-468-7066.

Don't delay – beat the rush! We are here to help you!