TRADEMARK RESOURCE: SPEAKERS

The REALTOR®, REALTORS®, REALTOR ASSOCIATE®, and REALTOR® Logo trademarks ("REALTOR® Marks") are a valuable member benefit and association asset. Proper use of the REALTOR® Marks is crucial to protecting NAR's rights.

REALTOR® ONLY MEANS MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®

ALWAYS:

- Format the REALTOR® Marks in all uppercase letters with the trademark registration symbol: REALTOR®.
- When using the REALTOR® Marks, include a direct reference to association membership, such as NAR's or other association's name, a general reference to an "association", the Code of Ethics, a major membership activity, such as committee participation, or "agent and a REALTOR®", or "agent who is a REALTOR®" language.
- Use "member" if the sentence does not include a direct reference to association membership.

NEVER:

- Use the REALTOR® Marks as a job title. Instead, use the appropriate job title, such as "real estate professional", "real estate agent", or "real estate broker".
- Use descriptive words with the REALTOR® Marks (such as "professional", "commercial", "residential", or geographic names).

EXAMPLES OF PROPER MARKS USE:

- "Sarah is a REALTOR® who volunteers with the National Association of REALTORS®."
- "REALTORS® enjoy participating in their local association's events."
- "As a REALTOR®, Sarah abides by a Code of Ethics."
- "REALTORS® participate in committees at the local, state, and national level."
- "Sarah is a real estate agent and a REALTOR®."

EXAMPLES OF IMPROPER MARKS USE:

- "Sarah is a REALTOR®."
- "Work with a REALTOR® to find your dream home."
- "A REALTOR® will help you during your closing."
- "A REALTOR® is your trusted advisor."

RULES FOR NAR SPEAKERS:

- As a participant in an NAR event, your use of the REALTOR® Marks must comply with NAR's trademark rules.
- NAR will consider misuse of the REALTOR® Marks a breach of your contract, which may also result in NAR having to edit or halt distribution of your content and end the possibility of future speaking opportunities at NAR events.
